

Press Release

[Stetron Introduces New Dynamic Receiver]

Buffalo, NY, Tuesday July 25, 2017: Ideal for use in telecom handsets, Stetron presents our newly developed dynamic receiver. This TIA 920 wide band compliant receiver is a low profile (6mm), high output component.

Low profile, excellent THD and frequency response are key deliverables of this competitively priced solution.

To learn more about this new dynamic receiver, please visit <https://stetron.com/products/dr0032032nm0znfr/> or contact stetron.contacts@Stetron.com.

Dynamic Receiver
Part # DR0032032NM02NFR

Stetron

Stetron is a premier supplier of custom audio solutions to fortune 500 companies worldwide. Established in 1965, Stetron has spent years fine tuning the product engineering of microphones, speakers, dynamic receivers and loudspeakers. Stetron's Asian based manufacturing coupled with North American engineering, delivers technically advanced products at competitive prices.

Stetron strives to provide the highest level of customer and technical support in the industry. They work with customers to fully understand their audio requirements and help them design solutions that meet their requirements. Stetron maintains a full anechoic chamber and uses sophisticated software to measure a number of parameters including: THD, Life and load testing, Thiele Small Parameters, Impedance and Environmental. Stetron provides a strong technical experience and data you can trust.

Stetron maintains a global presence with offices in Toronto, Canada; New York, United States; Taipei, Taiwan; Ningbo and Foshan, China.

Learn more about Stetron

"Like" us on Facebook

<https://www.facebook.com/StetronInternational/>

"Follow" us on LinkedIn

<https://www.linkedin.com/company-beta/16208516/>